Town Clerk

Report of Board of Selectmen

The Board of Selectmen organized March 15, 1965 with Alford Dyson, Chairman and Antonio B. Gracia, Jr., Clerk.

In the year 1965 Westport saw its biggest building boom since the town was incorporated in 1787.

As a result of the growth and the construction of interstate highway Route 195 through our town, many homes were displaced. We also received requests from many of the businessmen located on Route 6 for an East Bound exit ramp on Route 195 in order that those desiring food and lodging would be able to reach Route 6 with a minimum of effort. In as much as this request has a direct bearing on the future economy of Westport, thirteen meetings have been held to date with local businessmen, town, state, and Federal officers. While we have not been successful to date in this respect, we will continue every effort to obtain this exit ramp which will benefit the whole town.

Three new police officers were appointed in 1965, Joseph A. Levesque, Ernest Nunes, and Alfred F. Candeias. Also for the first time two Policewomen appointed, Mrs. Jessica Pearce and Mrs. Thelma Candeias.

A 1966 Oldsmobile ambulance and a police boat was purchased, with the approval of the annual town meeting, for the protection of the health and safety of our citizens.

Plans for the construction of bathing facilities at the town beach were put out to bid in 1965, however, due to the bid prices exceeding the money appropriated and legal problems involved construction has not begun. It is our desire in 1966 to provide these necessary facilities and to continue the service of a life guard for the protection of those using our town beach. 1965 also saw the Patrolling of the South Watuppa Pond by the Police Department for the protection of its citizens.

During the year 1965 saw the opening of a new shopping center on Route 6 and a notification from the United States Post Office Department that a new Post Office building will be located on Route 6 in 1966.

Regarding many of the Federal programs, our town became part of the war against Poverty, also of a regional program known as the O.E.D.P. committee that would provide planning for the future of our town and for uplifting the region economically. Westport became part of a regional beautification program that is designed to make our town and surrounding areas more attractive and to promote the beautification in these areas.

On June 2, 1965 a report was presented to the Board of Selectmen from the Water Study Committee that was appointed in 1963. At a special town meeting in 1964 authorization was given by the townspeople to have an engineering study made of Westports water needs. In the year 1966 we hope to implement some of the aspects of this report. We wish to commend the Water Study Committee for their untiring efforts to date.

The Board of Selectmen have opposed the annual assessment that our town is required to pay as our share of the Bristol County Hospital District. It is our feeling this assessment is unfair to us and we will continue to oppose it.

Reports of committee departments and Boards appointed by the Selectmen are printed in this report for your examination.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many citizens who have given their time by serving on committees or in any way or another lent their hand during the year for the benefit of our town.

The Board of Selectmen respectfully submit the following report from their records of the past year.

Shellfish Constable's Report

To the board of Selectmen:
Westport, Mass.
Mr. Alford Dyson, Chairman
Gentlemen:

I hereby submit the annual shellfish report for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1965.

One hundred twenty bushels of mixed quahogs were planted in the east branch of the Westport River in an effort to replenish the dwindling bed

Oyster seed has been moved from over productive areas to more barren areas. Thirty-one bushels of oyster seed has been contributed to the river by a local Shucking house.

Our scallop crop for this year has far surpassed that of previous years. At this time we have a tremendous set of scallop seed and if it survives will produce a far better crop next year. Many bushels of seed scallops have been moved from areas in which they cannot survive, to better areas.

The year 1965 can be described as a year in which greater emphasis has been placed on the quality of services given to supplement financial assistance to needy persons. Local Offices are being supervised more frequently by the state workers and in accordance with federal requirements. Two state audits have covered the periods 7/60 --6/61 and 7/61 - 6/62.

Increased federal participation in the reimbursement to the communities was small in 1965: in A.F.D.C. it was increased to include children 18 to 21 attending certain schools of higher education and to include the other adult parent when need was caused by illness or unemployment. Costs increased in many nursing home rates, in an additional hospital charge for new born babies, and in an increased leisure time activity allowance in Old Age Assistance. Deductible resources increased with the larger social security payments. Widows at age 60 and more of the older persons have become eligible for social security payments for the first time.

It should be noted that members of the local Board of Public Welfare are concerned about the liberal allowances and policies now in effect. Every possible resource from earnings, income from boarders, contributions from relatives, as well as potential income from these and any other source must be investigated and made available to the recipient. Detailed information relative to personal property, automobiles, and property holdings continues to be as important as ever. A person must avail himself of every resource, including unemployment compensation and/or social security benefits, when an applicant for or a recipient of public assistance.

In addition to the usual assistance and services there has been information to pass on to the recipients relative to training courses available through the Office of Employment Security, protection under the Civil Rights Act, hospital care and medical insurance effective 7/1/66 under the Social Security Act, vaccination and immunization programs in co-operation with the Health Department.

The year 1966 will see even more changes as the provisions of the Social Security Act become effective. Increased federal reimbursement on a recipient count basis increases from $54.00 to $57.50 each per month in O.A.A., from $46.50 to $50.00 in D. A., and from $20.50 to $22.00 in A.F.D.C. Federal reimbursement in administration expense is expected to remain about the same.

There will still be the hospital costs not covered by social security as the "insured" person's initial obligations under the Medicare program to be considered in planning.

Public Welfare will continue to be represented in the Community Action Committee planning. Norman Gifford and Elzear Chabot have been attending the local meetings.

There is still need for more office space: privacy is needed for interviews, space is needed for reference material and for filing Reports and registers become a regular part of every new service provided and must be available for review and audit. Every member of the staff has found it necessary to assume more responsibilities and is certainly quite aware of the importance of that certain detail that can make a difference between a full cost to the town or a lesser cost when federal and state monies have contributed a part.

During 1965 the hours of the library services were increased to 35 hours per week enabling us to remain open the same time every day. 10:00 A.M. to 12:00 noon 2:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday thru Saturday. Also 6:30 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. Monday and Thursday evening. This regular schedule has received much favorable comment and has resulted in an increase in circulation of over 16%.

The need for additional space for improved library service is a generally recognized problem. In past years, studies were made indicating the need for a new central library building. In 1965 a Library Building Committee was appointed to further this aim. They are, at present, attempting to implement these studies.

All four members of the Library Staff have earned certificates in Librarianship as awarded by the Massachusetts Division of Library Extension. Two members of the Staff attended courses in Reference Work given by the Division and our Librarian, Mrs. Broadbent has completed three courses in Library Science at the University of Rhode Island. Westport is fortunate to have such personnel who would give give of their own time and effort that they may do their jobs more efficiently. The Trustees are happy to take this opportunity to publicly express their appreciation.

Westport Youth Activity Board

December 27, 1965

Westport Board of Selectmen

Alford Dyson, Chairman

The Youth Activities Board hereby submits its annual report for 1965:

The report of Mr. John Kelley, director of the Swimming Program is as follows:

At the completion of our third annual swimming program, 304 pupils had each received fifteen lessons at their own particular level. It was noted that over one-third of these pupils enrolled at the beginner and advanced beginner classes. While the initial steps of learning to swim are certainly to be encouraged, we would hope that even more children would take advantage of the developmental swimming skills presented in the Intermediate and Swimmer classes. Since swimming skills are beneficial both for survival and recreational purposes, not limited to boys or girls, and may be enjoyed throughout life, we urge all to take advantage of this program.

AREAS

Once again our lessons for the Watuppa Area were held at the Head of Westport. This is far from an ideal situation since it creates transportation problems for the children in the Watuppa Area. It is the opinion of the instructors that at least 100 more pupils would enroll in classes if an area were available at the Watuppa Pond.

The Head of Westport has vastly improved since the beginning of our program. The sand along the river bottom has contributed much to the safety in the area, although some debris still finds its way into the river. Our chief limiting factor at the Head still concerns the tidal problem, as our lessons naturally coincide with the swimming hours for children not enrolled in classes.

Westport Point is somewhat limited by tide and current. It is currently the only area available where lifesaving classes may be taught.

INSTRUCTORS

The resignation of Miss Denise Toohey and Miss Wilma Bor were accepted with regret. They were replaced by Miss Louise Woltman and Mr. Jeffrey Kelley, who performed their duties capably.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

1. The Westport Youth Activities Board for making This program possible through their efforts.
2. The Board of Selectmen and Highway Dept. for their interest and effort in improving swimming areas.
3. Instructors, Daniel Kelly, Louise Woltman, and Jeffrey Kelly, for their able assistance.
4. The parents and children for their cooperation..
5. The American Red Cross for their service and certificates.

The following numbers of children attended classes in each category during the 1965 season:

Polywogs	27

The Board is Happy to report, that in answer to popular demand a four-team Junior Baseball League was successfully organized with about seventy-six boys participating. This provides a much needed step after boys leave little league and until they are old enough to play at the High School level. We wish to convey our thanks to director Bob St. Amour and all men serving as managers, coaches and umpires, for a job well done. We also wish to acknowledge the efforts of the ladies auxiliary for providing extra activities for the Junior League.

The soccer and basketball programs, under director Bill Albanese, again received good response with about 120 participating. In addition to the recreaational aspect of these programs, they serve to prepare boys for participation at high school level.

To meet the needs of the girls, it has been difficult to find activities that will appeal to a large number. However, the charm and poise classes, which received good response last year, were continued again this year. We think that the enthusiasm shown surely justifies the continuation of this program.

As was reported last year, a request was made to the School Department for land adjacent to the Alice A. Macomber School for use as a playground. However, it is apparent that due to the anticipated expansion of school construction, the School Department undestandably has not been able to release this land at this time. It is therefore recommended that a site at some other location be obtained if a playground is to be developed in the near future. Because of its large area, Westport, of necessity, should eventually develop more than one playground. However, we recommend that this first site be located in the area of greatest population density.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the Selectmen for their cooperation, and all people who have assisted us in an attempt to serve the youth of the community. Special thanks to Mr. Fogg and the School Committee for their generous use of facilities at the High School.

Respectfully submitted,

GERARD A. BUSSIERE

Report of the Wesport Planning Board

Mr. Alford Dyson, Chairman
Board of Selectmen
Westport, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

The Planning Board begins its Annual Report for 1965 by urging anyone who desires to develop land into house lots to meet with the Planning Board before having formal plans made. The owner should come to this meeting with a rough sketch showing what he proposes to do, but this sketch may be in pencil and may be made by the owner himself. The reason for urging is that in the past some owners have appeared before the Board for the first time with expensive formal plans which have had to be completely redone.

At the organization meeting in March, Borden C. Tripp was elected Chairman, and Arthur V. Tripp was elected Secretary.

On April 21st the Board accepted with regret the resignation of Sydney Baldwin as a member of the Planning Board. His doctor's orders forced Mr. Baldwin to take this step, which was a loss to the Planning Board.

During 1965 the Planning Board stamped 8 plans "Approved", 20 plans "Approval not required", and 2 plans "Approval not Required for for Registry Purposes only." It is noted that "Approval not required for Registry Purposes Only" was devised by Colonel Cassidy and approved by the Planning Board to meet situations where no subdivision is involved, where the owner wants to have his plan recorded and where the owner cannot meet with the statutory requirements for "Approval not Required."

It is noted that three of the plans stamped in 1965 were substantial duplicates of plans stamped in previous years and lost by their owners. The Planning Board notes that people with stamped plans can save themselves from unnecessary trouble and expense by having them recorded promptly.

The Planning Board wishes to express its thanks to Joseph R. Cadime for accepting appointment to the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Burrell in 1964. At the end of 1964, when two members of the Planning Board were ill, Mr. Cadime by his faithful attendance and sound judgement kept the Planning Board operative.

Report of the Town Conservation Commission

Westport Board of Selectmen
Alford Dyson, Chairman

Gentlemen:

The commission has met every third Tuesday of the month except for July and August. Several field trips were conducted throughout the town.

We regret the loss of Mr. Jack Preston as a member of the commission. His position has been filled by Mr. Octave Pelletier.

Development of the Town Forest was begun by the Commission with an initial logging operation. This was followed by the cutting of fire lanes and trails. We have been consulting with state officials in the field of conservation regarding the potential uses and development of management policies for the forest.

We have completed an inventory of conservation areas with the Southeastern Massachusetts Planning District.

Several projects were in various phases of planning at the end of the year.

In view of the attention being focused on conservation at all levels of government, we hope that the citizens of Westport will agree with us that serious efforts should be made to develop conservation and recreational facilities in the town. The development of such projects will become more expensive and difficult to accomplish as the town grows.

The commission is appreciative of the assistance received from town officials and from interested citizens.

The Greater Fall River Vocational School District Committee and its Superintendent-Director devoted the entire year to: land acquisition, firming areas of instruction to be offered, writing and approving educational specifications, and reviewing and approving preliminary and final plans for the new 1,200 student Diman Regional Vocational-Technical High School.

On February 28, 1965, a formal contract for the planning of the school was signed by the committee with the architectural firm of Korslund, LeNormand & Quann, Inc., of Norwood, Massachusetts.

As a result of considerable research, consultations with industry and the State Department of Vocational Education, two areas of training were added to the post of secondary program; namely Beauty Culture and Business Machines.

Final plans, as approved on November 2, 1965,, by the School Building Assistance Commission, the State Department of Vocational Education, and the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency, provide for the following areas of instruction:

GRADES 9—12	PROJECTED ENROLLMENT
Auto Body	70
Auto Mechanics	100
Electricity	80
Electronics	80
Foods	80
House and Mill Carpentry	80
Machine Shop	180

POST SECONDARY
Beauty Culture	20
Business Machines	20
Dental Assistants	20

Electronic Data Processing	20

Practical Nursing	40

Receipt of checks totaling $152,512.75, an interest-free loan from the Housing and Home Finance Agency to cover costs of architectural and engineering services for preliminary and final planning, eliminated the necessity of appropriating money for this purpose by the member communities.

A six-man Advisory Building Committee, experienced in the construction field, was appointed by the committee to assist in the planning of the school. The committee wishes to express their appreciation to the Advisory Committee members for their valuable assistance and guidance during the planning period.

A check in the amount of $17,418.00 was received by the District from the State Department of Vocational Education as its 1965 share of the state allotment from the Vocational Act of 1963. This money is to be used solely for capital cost purposes. It is estimated that the Greater Fall River Vocational School District will receive $116,000 in fiscal 1966 and $116,000 in fiscal 1967 from this source.

The original target date for breaking ground for the school had been established for late January or early February, 1966. However, on August 26, 1965, Public Law 89-136, "Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965," was passed by the United States Congress. This Act provides, under Title I, grants for Public Works and Development Facilities. Upon investigation, it has been ascertained that vocational schools do comply with the provisions of this Act and that the District could be eligible for 50% of the total construction and equipment costs.

On October 22, 1965, at a meeting attended by District School Committee members, city and town officials, and representatives from Bond Counsel, it was unanimously agreed that any further steps relative to advertising of bids, awarding of contracts, and authorizing bond issues be postponed until the federal grant situation was clarified.

The Superintendent-Director is presently engaged in filing the necessary application for a Public Works Grant, which, if approved, could mean a savings to the member communities of $2,500,000. It is hoped that favorable action will be taken on the application in the near future, and that construction of this much-needed vocational-technical high school can begin in late spring.

We wish to express our appreciation to the Perini Construction Company, Montaup Sand and Gravel, and Kay-Locke Construction Company for their assistance in supplying an estimated 100,000 yards of fill for the school site, at relatively no cost to the District.

To the many Federal, State, City, and Town officials, upon whom we have called for assistance and guidance, our sincere thanks for their support and cooperation.

On behalf of the entire committee, we wish to express our sincere appreciation to the Superintendent-Director for his boundless energies and untiring efforts, his valuable guidance, and his devotion to vocational education.

In closing, I would like to commend my fellow school committee members for giving so unselfishly of their time, for their cooperation and their dedication to the ultimate goal in order that we might provide the finest vocational-technical education for the youth of this area.

Respectfully,

ERNEST A. WHEELER

Board of Selectmen
Westport, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I hereby submit my report for the year 1965.

During the past year Civil Defense of Westport acquired, at no cost, a 200 bed emergency hospital unit that cost the federal government $125,000. This Hospital unit consists of medicine, operating equipment, X-Ray and emergency lighting equipment. A refrigerator was also purchased for $400. that cost the federal government $900.00.

A Fork Lift that cost the federal government $7,000. was acquired by the town for $100.00.

Also two 2½ ton amphibious trucks or ducks, originally costing the federal government $20,258. were acquired by the town for $250.00 for both.

I have other equipment ordered, but am waiting for federal release, so as yet it is not in my inventory list.

In order to make my department more effective in time of need, I have sent men to school for courses in radiological instruction, rescue procedures and medical self-help.

Gas Inspector's Report

Board of Selectmen
Alford Dyson, Chairman
Westport, Mass.

Gentlemen:

I hereby submit my annual report for the year 1965.

The Board of Selectmen voted that the installation of gas services (bottled or natural) and gas appliances in the Town of Westport be in accordance with the State regulations and that all such installations require a permit and an inspection by the town gas inspectors.

There have been a total of 280 permits issued during the year 1965.

The fee established for each permit is $3.50 with the Gas Inspector receiving $2.50 of this amount for his services and expenses. With this system of fees and payments to the inspector or assistant inspector, Mr. Albert H. Field, this program is self supporting and administered at no cost to the taxpayer. In addition the sum of $280.00 was turned over to the Town Treasury..

Applications for permits for gas installations can be obtained from either gas inspector, the Police Department at the Town Hall and the North Westport Fire Station. Every effort will be made to provide prompt inspections. However, as the inspectors work only part time, it also requires the cooperation of the person taking out the permit.

On doubtful mornings, the family radio should be tuned in from 6:30 A.M. to 7:30 A.M. for no-school decisions.

Weather conditions in a given area at a given time are still largely unpredictable. Therefore, there will be days when, with the best of intention, buses will be sent when they should not, and not sent when they should be.

Parents will have to use their own judgement in determining whether their children should attend school under adverse weather conditions. When attendance is poor because of weather conditions, no new work will be presented by the teachers.

Voted:

To accept the Superintendent's Report for the Annual School Report.

Superintendent's Report to the School Committee

December, 1965

I herewith submit my seventh annual report as Westport's superintendent of schools, it being the seventy-seventh such report submitted in the history of the Westport Superintendency.

In common with my previous custom,, I list the major educational and material gains that our school system has made during the past year, our major needs as we see them, general statement relating to past and present educational practice and philosophy in our country.

Educational and Material Gains During 1965

1. An extension of the new mathematics into the middle and lower grades, as well as into the field of geometry in the High School.
2. Obtaining of a reading specialist to make a study of the needs and expedite remedial measures in the field of reading.
3. Adding substantially to the school libraries of the Earle and Macomber Schools.
4. A full-time helping teacher has been placed in the Greenwood Park School where we have the town's greatest concentration of first graders.
5. A continued improvement in the testing services that we are able to offer to the children of Westport.
6. A complete redecoration of the interior of the High School was carried out by our custodial force during the summer.

7. The long-awaited extension of the Earle School playgrounds has been accomplished during the past year. The auditorium has been painted.
8. The head of the High School English Department is giving an in-service training course in the field of English to our Junior and Senior High English teachers.
9. A complete rebuilt Grand Piano has been obtained for the High School auditorium.
10. An additional calculator has been obtained for the commercial department at the high school.
11. Additions have been made to our audio-visual equipment.
12. We now have our own psychologist and psychometrist, Capt. Ellsworth Smith.

Major Needs For 1965 (And After)

1. Additional school housing is the imperative need of our school system at this time
2. The provision of the kind of additional school housing which will lead toward the solution of other needs, such as kindergartens, an additional special class room, and the revision of the high school curriculum toward providing a more beneficial program for about one-seventh of our student body. (Most high schools have this need.)
3. We have need of additional space at the elementary, the junior high and the high school levels. While the elementary needs are immediately the most acute, the needs of the junior high and high school will soon be scarcely less so. All our housing needs are on the heels of each other. We can well become involved in three school building programs simultaneously.

4. Westport is really beginning to grow and as yet we have seen only the beginning. We are in the unusually fortunate position of being able to solve all our building needs by erecting one new building; namely a new senior high school for grades 9-10-11-12. This would enable us to use the present high school building for grades 5-6-7-8, and reduce the pressure on the Earle and Macomber Schools by making them responsible for housing Kindergarten through Grade four. We could still use the newest of the present wooden structures for elementary housing growth.
5. Such a procedure would allow for curriculum improvement in grades 5-6-7-8-9 10 11 and 12. The cost of a new senior high school should not be prohibitive for Westport when we take into consideration present state aid and probable federal aid to come. Because of this aid, we can afford to do that which we ought to do in any event; namely put the causes of improved education first in our thinking.

Educational Patterns — Past and Present

No one can be altogether sure that he is reading the signs perceptively enough to predict what is coming. Yet many responsible people are speaking out because they see signs—signs that an essential part of the American heritage is being eroded away.

The foundation of our nation is its great commitment to the individual human being. Its first great document declares that he has certain unalienable rights and that he is the source of all government. The young nation fashioned its government to cherish those rights and to do his bidding. It shaped its economy to give free play to his ideas, his energy, and his drives. Very soon it began building a universal school system dedicated to the full development of his unique personal powers.

Now this foundation is threatened, not because the American people have consciously changed their mind, but because increasing massiveness and cultural shift. Individuality tends to be submerged in complexity have led in many subtle ways towards a great gigantic organizations, in chain-belt production, and in the complex cultural interdependencies of our society.

Caught in this cultural drift, the schools too are veering toward impersonal solutions to vital educational problems. Mass groupings, standard curricula, texts, and examinations, and standardized institutions are squeezing individuals into a common mold. With an eye to masses rather than individuals, the schools are departing from their unique character by manipulating pupils and teachers into organizational patterns, and by leaning on administrative and mechanical devices that tend to destroy the very quality which has made them great.

Westport has not been affected as much by these things because of its size, location and economy, but will be affected greatly as time passes.

It is no use to yearn for a time gone by, or try to return to it. We cannot. Increasing numbers and massiveness are facts, as are growing interdependence and increasing interrelatedness. A just emphasis on group values and the ability to live well in groups—is a necessity. Education itself must go on largely within the context of the group.

Yet none of this makes individuality less essential. We must find a modern way of nurturing the special character and unique strengths of each individual in a world in which that individual will be highly involved in groups. We must find ways of handling group situations so that even they contribute to the individuality of each member. We need unity, yes, even a certain conformity; but we need diversity too. We must learn to combine both, in a new harmony.

In Conclusion

We are, and must be concerned, with teaching subject matter and skills, to our children. We are doing this fairly well as can be seen by the abilities, aptitudes and skills possessed by our citizenry which were so necessary in the production and growth of our magnificent country.

Living in an era of exploding new knowledge, the teaching of skills and subject matter are ever more difficult to keep up with. However, we must find ways to do so, and also be concerned with the following question, "In his years of schooling, how much is each youngster helped to reach out beyond himself, to perceive some ideal, and to throw himself into working for it?"

We must make sure that we do both in America's school systems if our country is to continue along the path of greatness envisioned by our forefathers, and fulfill the destiny that can be ours if our vision is clear and our efforts great.

Respectfully submitted,
LAURENCE A. FOGG

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF WESTPORT HIGH SCHOOL

December 1965

Dr. Laurence A. Fogg
Superintendent of Schools
Westport, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Fogg:

As Principal of the Westport High School I hereby submit my annual report.

Changes in Personnel

The following people resigned or were given leave of absence:

John Carli resigned to teach at Seekonk High School; Mrs. Barbara Bures moved to Connecticut and is teaching in that system; Mr. Andrew Raposa left to teach at Westfield State College; and Mrs. Barbara Wordell was granted a year's leave of absence.

Miss Jeannette Cummings was appointed physical education teacher and girls athletic coach. James Wills was transferred from the Earle School to teach social studies, English, and driver education. Mrs. Irene Mickelson, who has substituted at the high school, was assigned to the English department, and Mr. Richard Zoino, a graduate of SMTI, was assigned to teach chemistry and physics.

Curriculum

Our enrollment in the Homemaking Department has increased this year. This has always been one of our strong departments under the guidance of Miss Lillian Cahoon. There may be a need for another home-making teacher in the near future. This would to receive training in homemaking.

Our Business Education Department continues to place graduates in responsible positions in industry. This is a credit to our fine business education teachers, Mrs. Wanda Francis and Mrs. Patricia Marujo.

Our Mathematics Department is now teaching the modern approach to Algebra I and Geometry. Next year we will continue the new method in our Algebra II classes. More mathematics should be included in our general curriculum. We are now previewing text books to find those most adequate for our purpose.

English Department Report—Paul Larrivee, Head

The in-service course initiated in November for junior and senior high school teachers focuses on the structural linguistics approach to English. Both the scope of linguistics and the inductive methodology used in linguistic description suggest a new insight into the teaching of all phases of English—language, composition, reading, literature (as distinguished from reading), speaking, and listening. Though these phases all involve verbal activity falling under the umbrella term "English," the teacher with linguistic orientation recognizes that each phase draws upon somewhat different skills not spontaneously transferable to all other linguistic skills. He has a knowledge of phonetics, phonemics, suprasegmental phonemics, morphemics, morphology, dialectology, semantics, and syntax to assist him in all types of language problems.

To promote linguistics in this way is not to suggest that the teacher engage all his students in structural linguistic. But only with a knowledge of language functions far superior to what he can reasonably expect of his students can the teacher effectively vary his approaches to teaching and also learn significant facts about language problems of individual students.

Beyond the basic skills and developmental reading courses in progress and the introduction of new teaching approaches suggested by modern linguistics, little more can be done for the high school student needing remediation without the assistance of a teacher whose training includes familiarity with both psychological and physical problems relating dyslexia. Instead of this type of assistance, I urge that the high school at least receive the services of a teacher professionally trained in remedial reading, even if only on a part-time basis.

The problem of the "remedial" student in high school is especially vexing because his language habit and skills appear to be rather firmly fixed when he has reached adolescence. Because of this I recommend that the structural linguistics approach be applied at least partially to the language arts program in the elementary schools. This recommendation carries no suggestion of culpability on the part of elementary schools, for it can be asserted on strong evidence that reading and writing failures often occur before the child starts his school experience; and the linguistics approach to verbal problems is too recent an innovation for anyone to expect language arts teachers to have had strong formal training in it.

Although it might appear unfeasible to suggest that Westport now hire especially-trained teachers to function exclusively in the elementary school language arts program and that the system establish a Montessori program (perhaps with federal assistance), inescapable evidence remains that national literacy rates and literacy levels are disgracefully low. The traditional approach to the language arts might have served a century ago to acculturate linguistically and socially divergent groups of people, but traditionalism founded on normative values of "correctness" has failed dismally at developing high-level verbal processes. What remains for the child with only average verbal aptitude, which is actually low aptitude, is a frustratingly limited set of choices in employment possibilities in today's world.

REPORT OF DR. MARTINEAU

Our new approach to French appears to be popular because enrollment in French classes has doubled since the inception of the program. We now have three French I classes, two French II classes, and one French III class. The aural-oral method is a slow but effective learning process in which one must not be afraid to sacrifice speed for thoroughness. Class size is too large in some cases to enable us to reach every child effectively. We can foresee that another trained teacher and more funds will be required to settle this program. The present situation at the eighth grade level is not conducive to obtaining effective results. Class size and frequency of meetings are the main obstacles to true progress. In spite of the inconveniences mentioned above it is felt that the program is rather functional.

REPORT OF MRS. GEORGE SALVADOR, AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Through the efforts of the newly formed American Field Service Club in the high school and the coordinating AFS Adult Chapter in the town, sufficient funds were raised during a most successful Talent Show in January 1965 to enable the Chapter to apply to the AFS New York office for a foreign student during the 65-66 school year. Harald Klæboe from Norway entered the senior class in September 1965 at Westport High School. He has been most warmly received in Westport, participating in soccer and the Key Club, and becoming an honorary member of the Honor Society as well as taking a full academic schedule.

The adult chapter screened five candidates for the Americans Abroad 66 Summer Program of the AFS and selected two candidates, Elizabeth Souza and Janet Meador. The New York office will make the final decision.

One of the most rewarding parts of this program has been the enrichment that the high school students have gained by having Harald in their classes and being able to understand and appreciate another part of the world. The purpose of the AFS program has been to create greater understanding between peoples of the world by bringing students from abroad to study in U. S. secondary schools and live with families for a year as well as giving young Americans a similar opportunity to understand another country.

REPORT OF MR. SZALA, VO.AG DEPARTMENT

Two graduates went onto the Stockbridge School of Agriculture..

James Pierce was top boy both in the state in Milk Products Judging at Amherst and at Eastern States Exposition in competition with boys from twelve North Atlantic States.

Michael Perry was the top judge of Dairy Cattle last year at Amherst. He went to the Eastern States Exposition where he placed first in Holsteins. He was also a member of the Massachusetts Dairy Cattle Judging Team at Waterloo, Iowa.

Charles Keith, former Westport student, was a member of the State Dairy Products Team this fall and received the Silver Emblem Award judging at Waterloo, Iowa, this fall.

I was State-Coach-in-Charge of the Massachusetts Dairy Cattle and Dairy Products Judging Teams at Waterloo, Iowa.

In the Livestock Judging Contest this fall Westport High School placed first in the state at Amherst with Thomas Carreira and Henry Sylvia placing first and second respectively. The school will receive an engraved rotating trophy for the boys' accomplishment.

Michael Perry and Henry Sylvia represented Westport at the National Convention held at Kansas City, Mo., in October. The Convention was attended by approximately 15,000 FFA members from every state in the nation.

Interest in the Adult Young Farmer Program is about the same as it has been. An agricultural program is offering evenings to interested residents. This is an important phase of education, for Westport has more farms and more cows, and produces more milk than any other town in Massachusetts.

Interest in our Eleventh Annual Westport Fair is increasing. It is organized and run by the Young Farmer Group and FFA students. It provides both groups with business education and co-operative efforts of undertaking such a large project.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT
MRS. ETHEL LIEBMANN and
MR. ELLSWORTH SMITH

Some important developments have occurred in the Guidance Department over the last year. In the course of this year's work, I found it noteworthy that the graduating class of 1966 has received a number of letters of early acceptance to schools of further learning. The December survey shows that of the one-hundred students in the senior class, forty-one students have completed applications for admission to thirty-two schools including degree granting colleges, non-degree, business schools, hospital schools for nursing, and various other schools of further education.

Five students have been honored with letters of commendation for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring. They are Arthur J. Deneault, Barbara I. Gonet, Amy Horan, Carol Pettey, and Doris M. Sasseville. They are among 38,000 students across the nation recognized for scoring in the top two percent of students who will complete high school in 1966. The test performance is evidence of unusual academic promise.

Capt. Ellsworth N. Smith has been working closely with Mrs. Margaret Kelliher, teacher of special education, and with the junior high school faculty in a testing program designed to determine special instructional needs of students. Mrs. Kelliher's special education class is making satisfactory progress.

The athletic teams met with varied success. Being the smallest school in the league is not conducive to champion teams; however, the boys and their coaches do very well considering the opposition we face. The soccer team was particularly successful in finishing second in the Blaine State Soccer League.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Padelford,, our cafeteria manager, the lunch program continues to be a success. Space is increasingly becoming a problem in the preparation and serving of the lunches. Only the competent co-operation of the staff enables this to operate so efficiently. I think the public should be aware that food for both the Head School and the Earle School is prepared at the high school.

The great majority of our teachers are dedicated to their work, and have the interest of the children at heart. Because many teachers have not been mentioned in this report, it does not mean that their efforts have not been appreciated and noted.

As Principal of the Westport High School, I wish to urge the School Building Committee to seriously consider the construction of a new high school building.

The present enrollment is 460 and every indication is that the high school population will grow. New construction in the town and transfers from parochial schools increased this year's enrollment by approximately 70 students. I feel this is an indication of things to come.

I feel strongly that our present junior high school situation providing inadequate facilities, handicaps our incoming 9th graders. This could be remedied by the use of the present high school for a middle school, which would include grades 5, 6, 7, and 8.

As the curriculum expands the need for more rooms and special facilities becomes greater. Presently the scope of our offerings is not adequate in instrumental and vocal music, in foreign languages and in laboratory science courses. The combination of auditorium—gymnasium presents many problems. To have an assembly, we must cancel our gym classes and set up approximately 500 chairs. This requires the labor of custodians for an hour.

I also wish to point out that our present guidance suite is made up of the nurse's office and a small conference room; that our nurse's office is a dressing room; and that our cafeteria manager must use another dressing room as her headquarters. Our instrumental music program director occupies a men's room in the custodians' area. The machine room for our commercial course leaves much to be desired. The cafeteria should accommodate two serving lines but under the present conditions this is not possible.

NEW EQUIPMENT

Electric typewriter for the main office

Typewriters for the commercial department and other offices

DeJur Dictating and transcribing machine for the commercial department

Overhead projector for the agricultural department

Sun portable tune-up kit for the agricultural department

Encyclopedia Britannica A/V Set for English.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you, Dr.
Fogg, and the committee for your assistance in guidance in making whatever progress has been accomplished possible. I feel that this has been one of our most successful years.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD S. WOOD

JUNIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL'S REPORT TO SUPERINTENDENT

December 24, 1965

Dr. Laurence A. Fogg
Superintendent of Schools
Westport, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Fogg:

In compliance with your request, I herewith submit my annual report as Principal of the Junior High School.

This year there were several changes and additions to the faculty of the Factory School. They are as follows:

Mr. Frederick R. Lawton replaced Mrs. Edith who accepted a position in Somerset.

Mrs. Janet Underwood is teaching Art at both the Factory and Head Schools, thereby relieving Mr. Rayno of his eight grade art classes.

Miss Gloria McGillick is teaching Physical Education to the girls at the Factory School as well as at the Head School.

Mr. Louis Finucci is teaching the Self-contained sixth grade class, which was placed in the Factory School this September, because of the great overflow at the Macomber School.

At present our enrollment stands the the rather awesome figure of 242 pupils.

The Factory School —	Grade 6—	38 pupils
(4 rooms)	Grade 7—	110 pupils

148

The Head School —
(3 rooms)	Grade 8— 94 pupils

In spite of the the crowded conditions, our dedicated teachers continue to do an excellent job in in their individual classrooms, (as my supervisory reports will bear out), and I am indeed grateful every day for their loyal cooperation. Moreover, I proudly hail and congratulate the followinig for "service above and beyond the call of duty".

Mrs. Szaro and her editorial staff for the school newspaper.

Mr. Finucci and his sixth graders for the Christmas program.

Mrs. McGuire and her Household Arts girls delightful Tea, especially Mrs. McGuire for her unforgettable puppet shows.

Mr. Mello and his Blue Raiders for their unbeatable school spirit.

Miss McGillick and her cheerleaders for their enthusiasm and dignity.

Mrs. Underwood and her artists for making our surroundings artistically pleasant and beautiful.

In short, all those teachers, pupils, and co-workers who, though unsung, faithfully and successfully execute their many daily tasks.

My infinite thanks to all of them! I especially thank Mrs. Lois Kelley for her tremendous help and adminisitrative work at the Head School.

Parent's Night was an extremely heartwarming experience this year; it proved to me and to my colleagues that parents are more actively interested in the educational growth, progress, and welfare of their children than ever before.

I conclude my report with two urgent requests. First, I hope that in the near future the School Committee will see fit to provide our school busses with monitors, whose prime function will be to alleviate the tremendous responsibility of the bus drivers, and to maintain discipline, thereby, greatly lessening the possibility of highway accidents. Secondly, I hope that in the Building Program, which is at present in the planning stages, that the first consideration will be given to a new Junior High School. Westport has never had a junior high school building, and I am sure that the citizens of Westport will look with favor upon improved building facilities for our junior high school pupils.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA C. PAOLI

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF
ALICE A. MACOMBER SCHOOL

Alice A. Macomber School
North Westport, Mass.

December 8 1965

Dr. Laurence A. Fogg
Superintendent of Schools
Westport, Massachusetts

My dear Dr. Fogg:

In 1965 we had but one change in the faculty at the Macomber School.

Miss Helen Tomkiewicz, a graduate of the Bridgewater State College was assigned to teach grade two.

Our present enrollment is 355 pupils.

This year it was necessary for us to place one sixth grade class at the Factory School to take care of our enrollment.

Several of our grades this year have 35 or over pupils per classroom. Our present sixth grade at Macomber has 43 pupils. One of our fifth grades has 41 pupils. This is due to the many new families moving into Westport and also several transfers from St. George's School. We know that large numbers such as these are extremely difficult for teachers to instruct at the elementary level.

Our need is great for additional classroom space. I feel that by next September at least two additional classrooms will be vitally necessary.

I would like to see in the near future two ungraded groups set up to benefit children that are having difficulty with an all academic school day. One for children that are not ready to go on after grade 3 and one for children not ready to enter grade 7. Classes such as these should include woodworking, sewing, and arts and crafts.

We have added the teaching of the new mathematics to most of our fast working Groups. The children seem quite enthusiastic and the results have been good.

We acknowledge with thanks:

1 Porta Scribe Portable Overhead Projector

2 Record Playes

1 Set of Teaching Aids (Mathematics)

370 Library Books for the School Library

We are indeed fortunate to have so many dedicated teachers and school personel whose main purpose is the education and welfare of our Westport children.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you, Dr. Fogg, and the School Committee for your assistance and guidance.

Respectfully submitted,

IRENE D. BOODRY

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF MILTON E. EARLE SCHOOL

Dr. Laurence A. Fogg
Superintendent of Schools
Westport, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Fogg:

In compliance with your request, I submit, herewith, my report for 1965.

An unusual number of changes in our teaching personnel took place in September. These included the following transfers: Mrs. Irene Caswell from grade 4 to grade 2, Mrs. Barbara Tripp from grades 3 and 4 to grade 4, Mrs. Elizabeth Moran from grade 5 to grades 4 and 5, Mr. James Wills from grade 5 to Westport High School faculty, and Mrs. Voyzie Costa from building assistant at the Earle to helping teacher at Greenwood Park School.

Two teachers, new to Westport, were assigned to the Earle School in September, as follows: Mr. Stephen Almeida, with three years of teaching experience to grade 5, and Mr. Paul Leite, who had taught for two years in Fall River, to grade 6.

We are so grateful that Mrs. Hilda Perry was able to return to us in the fall, after an absence of nearly a year, because of illness. At the present time, Mrs. Perry serves us 3 days a week as helping teacher.

Curriculum innovations include the adoption of an English Composition text in grades 4, 5, and 6 which we anticipate will help to improve some of our weaknesses in written English.

The need for "matrons" on our school buses is a persistent request, yet one which becomes increasingly significant with each succeeding year, because of the increase in incidents involving the safety and morals of our pupils. Once again, I respectfully request your consideration of this important problem.

I acknowledge, with thanks, the following:

1. Progress in extending the playground area.
2. Acquisition of over 400 volumes for classroom libraries.
3. Bookcases for classroom libraries and office.
4. Screen for auditorium.

One of the main concerns in elementary education today is the "speedup" and resultant academic pressures on our children, starting with grade one. Until there is sufficient evidence of the lasting benefits of the means and methods of this acceleration, we hope that we may be allowed to "proceed with caution."

Respectfully yours,

AUDREY L. TRIPP
