That I Gilbert H. Wordell of Westport, in the county of Bristol and state of Massachusetts in consideration of five hundred dollars paid by Gilbert R. Wordell of said Westport the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby grant, sell, transfer, and deliver unto the said Gilbert R. Wordell the following goods and chattels, namely, Three cows, all the farming tools and implements, hay, fodder and grain, one horse, one lumber wagon, one covered wagon, and one open wagon, one sett of harness, three hogs, farm fowl, seven cords of wood, a lot of vegetables, one boat and rigging, all now contained on the farm now occupied by me in said Westport. To have and to hold all and singular, the said goods and chattels to the said Gilbert R. Wordell and his executors, administrators, and assigns, to their own use and behoof forever.

And I hereby covenant with the grantee that I am the lawful owner of the said goods and chattels: that they are free from all incumbrances that I have good right to sell the same as aforesaid: and that I will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims and demands of all persons. Provided nevertheless that if the grantor, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall pay unto the grantee, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum of five hundred dollars, in two years from this date, with interest semi-annually at the rate of seven per cent. per annum: shall not waste or destroy the same, nor suffer them or any part thereof to be attached on mesne process: and shall not, except with the consent in writing of the grantee or his representatives, attempt to sell or to remove from said farm the same or any part thereof: then this deed, as also a note of even date herewith, signed by the said grantor whereby he promises to pay to the grantee or order the said sum with interest at the times aforesaid, shall both be void.

That upon any default in the performance of the foregoing condition, the grantee or his executors, administrators, or assigns, may sell the said goods and chattels by public auction, first giving 60 days notice in writing of the time and place of sale to the grantor or his representatives. And out of the money arising from such sale the grantee or his representatives shall be entitled to retain all sums then secured by this mortgage whether then or thereafter payable, including all costs, charges, and expenses incurred or sustained by him therein, in relation to the said property, or to discharge any claims, or liens of third persons affecting the same, rendering the surplus, if any, to the grantor or his executors, administrators, or assigns. And it is agreed that the grantee, or his executors, administrators or assigns, or any person or persons in their behalf, may purchase at any sale made as aforesaid: and that until default in the performance of the condition of this deed, the grantor and his executors, administrators, and assigns, may retain possession of the above mortgaged property, and may use and enjoy the same.
