1st Resolved - That the present rebellion agai-nst the freest & the best government on earth is Cruel, Wicked, barbarous, unjust and has no parallel in the history of the civil-ized world.

2^d Resolved - That a wholesome well settled government enhances the value of property, renders the hearthstone more sacred, home more genial & happy, adds to the pleasure of So-ciety - encourages industry, punishes crime, protects virtue, gives security & peace to the people and makes life more desirable.

 -ly say I am exempt from responsibility in this hour of our Country's peril.

 holds the bodies of two of her sons as pledges of her devotion and as tokens of her loyalty.

 of the Commander in Chief for troops should be avoided at every reasonable sacrifice as well as by energetic and legitimate action.

bounty promised and actually paid to Volunteers by authority of either of the foregoing resolutions.

10th Resolved - That we remember with the highest respect and gratitude the brave men who have been or who are now in the field in the service of our country - it may be well said they have borne the burthen & the heat of the day have any fallen by the way we mourn their loss, and posterity will honour their names. have any lost health, they shall have our sympathy and our children will remember the sacrifice -

11th Resolved - That we will also remember those who are now in camp & whether they be citizens of Westport or not, they are soon to rep-resent us in the field and while they
