Know all Men by these presents, that I Joseph F. Rogers of Westport in the County of Bristol and State of Massachusetts, in consideration of Two Hundred Dollars paid by John C. Perry of Westport aforesaid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby grant, sell, transfer, and deliver unto the said John C. Perry the following goods and chattels, namely:

Two Grey Horses, one eight years old, and one twelve years old. To have and to hold all and singular the said goods and chattels to the said John C. Perry and his executors, administrators and assigns, to their own use and behoof forever. And I hereby covenant with the vendee that I am the lawful owner of the said goods and chattels; that they are free from all incumbrances, that I have good right to sell the same as aforesaid; and that I will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims and demands of all persons. Provided nevertheless that if I or my executors, administrators, or assigns shall pay unto the vendee or his executors, administrators, or assigns the sum of Two Hundred Dollars in three years from this date, with interest as stated in a note of even date signed by me, and until such payment shall not waste or destroy the said goods and chattels, nor suffer them or any part thereof to be attached on mesne process, and shall not, except with the consent in writing of the vendee or his representatives, attempt to sell or to remove from the Town of Westport the same or any part thereof, then this deed, as also the aforesaid note, shall be void. But upon any default in the performance or observance of the foregoing condition the vendee or his executors, administrators, or assigns may sell the said goods at public auction, first giving 10 days notice in writing of the time and place of sale to me or my representatives, or publishing such notice once a week for three successive weeks in some one newspaper published in said County of Bristol. And out of the money arising from such sale the vendee or his representatives shall be entitled to retain all sums then secured by this mortgage, whether then or thereafter payable, including all costs, charges, and expenses incurred or sustained by him or them in relation to the said property, or to discharge any claims or liens of third persons affecting the same; rendering the surplus if any to me or my executors, administrators or assigns. And it is agreed that the vendee, or his executors, administrators or assigns or any person or persons in their behalf, may purchase at any sale made as aforesaid; and that until default in the performance or observance of the condition of this deed I and my executors, administrators, and assigns may retain possession of the above mortgaged property and may use and enjoy the same, but after such default the vendee or those claiming under him may take immediate possession of said property and for that purpose may, so far as I can give authority therefor, enter upon any premises on which said property or any part thereof may be situated and remove the same therefrom.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby given notice, that I intend to foreclose for breach of condition thereof, your mortgage to Humphrey Shockley deceased testate. Said mortgage is a mortgage of personal property therein described and is dated March 19th. 1881 and recorded in the records of Mortgages of Personal Property in the Clerks Office of the Town of Westport Book 2 Pages 288 and 289. Said mortgage was duly assigned and transferred to me by the executors of the will of the said Humphrey Shockley, by instrument dated August 25th. 1891. And you are further notified, that under the terms and conditions of said mortgage and for breach of condition thereof, I shall sell on the premises the said personal Property at public auction, on the first day of June A. D. 1892.

Yours truly

Joseph W. Shockley By his Atty.
Swift & Grime

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Bristol S. S. Fall River April 27th. 1892

I hereby certify that I this day served the above notice of which the above is a true and exact copy on Albert F. Davol, by giving to him in hand at Westport Massachusetts the said notice.

Charles S. Graham

Deputy Sheriff

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Bristol S. S. April 28th. 1892.

I then personally appeared the above named Charles S. Graham and made oath that the above statements subscribed by him in my presence were true.

Know all men by these presents. That I William Varley of Fall River in the County of Bristol and Commonwealth of Massachusetts in consideration of three hundred and fifty dollars paid by James Shaw of said Fall River, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby grant, sell, transfer, and deliver unto the said James Shaw the following goods and chattels, namely:

3 Horses, 28 Milk cows, 1 Bull, 1 Heifer, now kept on the Osborn Farm belonging to Leander Frelove in Westport Mass.

To have and to hold all and singular the said goods and chattels to the said James Shaw and his executors, administrators, and assigns, to their own use and behoof forever.

And I hereby covenant with the vendee that I am the lawful owner of the said goods and chattels; that they are free from all incumbrances, that I have good right to sell the same as aforesaid; and that I will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims and demands of all persons.

Provided nevertheless that if I, or my executors, administrators, or assigns, shall pay unto the vendee, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars in six months from this date, with interest as stated in my note of even date signed by me, and until such payment, shall not waste or destroy the said goods and chattels, nor suffer them or any part thereof to be attached on mesne process, and shall not, except with the consent in writing of the vendee or representatives, attempt to sell or to remove from said Farm the same or any part thereof, then this deed, as also the aforesaid note, shall be void.

But upon any default in the performance or observance of the foregoing condition, the vendee, or his executors, administrators or assigns, may sell the said goods and chattels at public auction, first giving 10 days notice in writing of the time and place of sale to me or my representatives, or publishing such notice once a week for three successive weeks in some one newspaper published in said Fall

River. And out of the money arising from such sale the vendee, or his representatives shall be entitled to retain all sums then secured by this mortgage, whether then or thereafter payable, including all costs, charges, and expenses incurred or sustained by them in relation to the said property, or to discharge any claims or liens of third persons affecting the same; rendering the surplus, if any, to me or my executors, administrators, or assigns.

And it is agreed that the vendee, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, or any person or persons in their behalf, may purchase at any sale made as aforesaid; and that until default in the performance or observance of the condition of this deed I and my executors, administrators, and assigns, may retain possession of the above mortgaged property and may use and enjoy the same, but after such default the vendee or those claiming under me may take immediate possession of said property and for that purpose may, so far as I can give authority therefor, enter upon any premises on which said property or any part thereof may be situated, and remove the same therefrom.
