(d) Mortgages upon personal estate.

(c) Money at interest, not secured by mortgage, but not including deposits in any savings bank chartered by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or deposits in the savings department of any trust company so chartered.

(f) Money deposited in any savings bank out of the Commonwealth.

(g) Deposits in national banks and trust companies (other than in the trust departments and savings departments of trust companies) which cannot be withdrawn except upon notice exceeding ten days.

(h) Bonds of all corporations, excepting railroad and street railway corporations; and scrip of insurance and other companies, including those pledged as collateral, at their fair cash value.

(i) Debts due from persons, copartnerships and corporations not included above.

(From such debts (α to i , both inclusive) there may be deducted debts legally due by the taxpayer on April first; but no debt is to be deducted which is secured by mortgage of real estate situated in the Commonwealth, nor any debt or liability as member of a firm, nor any contingent liability which the taxpayer has assumed or become liable for as maker—for the accommodation of any person, company or corporation—or negotiable paper, or as acceptor or endorser thereof, or as bail or surety.)

(k) Deposits in trust companies which can be withdrawn on demand or upon notice not exceeding ten days, and deposits in national banks. The amount returned as cash on hand or as cash on deposit shall be reduced by any debts or liabilities of the tax-payer.

(1) Goods, wares and merchandise or any other stock in trade, at the fair cash value thereof without deduction for any debts due for the same or any liabilities whatever.

(m) Machinery and implements of trade or business, including store and office furniture, at the fair value of the property less any depreciation or depletion for prior years, debts or liabilities of the taxpayer.

() Tools of a mechanic exceeding three hundred dollars in value.

(e) Income from profession, trade or employment, including all income (except two thousand dollars, exempt by law) which has been derived from the same during the year next preceding the first day of April. This amount is not to be offset by household expenses, by investment income, or by income from other sources, except the two thousand dollars exempt by law.

Excess above $2,000. =

(4) Income from annuities.

(g) Vessels and parts of vessels with their stores and appurtenances at their fair cash value, excepting only those actually engaged in the foreign carrying trade within the meaning of section seven of Part One of chapter four hundred ninety of the Acts of 1909, and which have been returned for tax under said section seven; amount not to be offset by deducting the fair value of any vessel or part thereof sailing under any foreign flag, but controlled or run in whole or in part for the benefit of the taxpayer.

(r) Mules, horses and vehicles of every description, and neat cattle not less than one year old and carriages and sheep not less than six months old.

(5) Household furniture exceeding one thousand dollars in value, including library, pictures, statuary, etc. Excess $1,000. =

Excess $1,000. =

(7) Shares in all incorporated companies, except national banks wherever located, chartered by or organized under the laws of any state or nation other than the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This class of property is not to be decreased by the temporary transfer of the shares of any corporation, but is to be a full return of all shares, including those pledged as collateral owned or held by the taxpayer, without deduction or offset.

(2) Public securities, including the bonds of all nations (except the United States and bonds or certificates of indebtedness by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts issued subsequent to Jan. 1, 1906, bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness of any county, fire district, water supply district, city or town in the Commonwealth issued on or after May 1, 1908) and of all states, counties, cities or towns, including those pledged as collateral, owned or held by the taxpayer, without deduction or offset.

(7) Bonds of all railroad corporations and street railway corporations, including those pledged as collateral, owned or held by the taxpayer, without deduction or offset.

(7w) All other personal property which has not been specifically exempted by law from taxation.

Act of 1909, Chap. 490, Part One, Section 772. "The persons aggrieved by the taxes assessed upon him may, within six months after the date of their claim, apply to the assessor for an abatement thereof; * * * and unless he has brought in the list of the names of the persons aggrieved by the taxes assessed upon him, he shall not be entitled to demand an abatement of the taxes assessed upon him. An executor, administrator or trustee after three years from the date of his appointment, or a tenant of real estate paying rent and under obligation to pay more than ten money of the tax thereon, may have an abatement of the taxes assessed upon the real estate of which he is executor, administrator or trustee, or tenant, if he can show that the taxes assessed upon the real estate should be abated unless the applicant shows to the assessors a reasonable excuse for the delay in making such application, and, in such case only the excess over such fifty dollars shall be abated. If the applicant was not required by said notice to include his real estate in said list, and has not been so required, he may, at any time, make such application, and, in such case, the excess over such fifty dollars shall not be abated. If the applicant was required by said notice to include his real estate in said list, and has not done so, he shall, if he seeks an abatement of the taxes assessed upon the real estate, be deemed to have approved the taxes assessed upon the abatement of the fair cash value of each parcel."

The foregoing schedule comprises all of the ("Real Estate" if required by the assessors to be returned, "and") personal property of every kind and description either within or without the Commonwealth owned or held by me on the first day of April of the current year subject to taxation by the assessors of the _____ of _____, under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts according to the instructions hereinbefore given; and the several items thereof have been computed in the lawful money of the United States, and all the statements and computations herein contained are full, true and correct according to my best knowledge & belief.

and sworn to before me,

One of the Assessors of.
