VALUATION LIST

of 1919.

ACTS OF 1909, CHAPTER 490, PART I.
ASSESSMENT OF TAXES.

[EXTRACT.]

SECTION 55. The assessors shall make, upon the books furnished under the provisions of section fifty-seven, a list of the valuation and the assessment thereon, in the following manner:— In separate columns the valuation of the stock in trade of each person, the number and value of his live stock and the valuation of machinery used in manufacturing establishments. In another column marked "All other ratable estate" the aggregate valuation of all the other personal estate shall be entered. The total amount of the taxable personal property shall be shown, but without other detail or specification than is provided herein. Before the taxes are committed for collection they shall deposit the books, or an attested copy thereof, in their office or, if there is no office, with their chairman, for public inspection.

SECTION 56. The list shall exhibit the valuation and assessment of the polls and estates of the inhabitants assessed; and the valuation and assessment of the estates of non-resident owners, and shall contain the names of the non-resident owners of the property assessed, or such description of them as can be given, their places of abode, if known, the description of their estate, the true value of such estate, and the tax thereon.

SECTION 57. The tax commissioner of the commonwealth shall provide each city and town, on or before the first day of April annually, suitable books for the use of the assessors in the assessment of taxes, which shall contain blank columns, with uniform headings for a valuation list, and blank tables for aggregates, in the following form:—provided, however, that in lieu of the valuation list provided for in this section and the preceding two sections the assessors of any city may, with the assent of the tax commissioner, prepare a valuation list upon books furnished by the city and in such form as the tax commissioner shall approve.

SECTION 60. The assessors of cities and towns, except the city of Boston, shall, on or before the first day of October in the year nineteen hundred and four and in every third year thereafter, deposit in the office of the tax commissioner, in books to be by him provided for the purpose, a copy of the assessors' valuation-books of those years, to be by them certified under oath. Said assessors shall also annually, on or before the first day of October, and the assessors of the city of Boston, on or before the first day of November, in like manner deposit an attested copy of the table of aggregates required by the provisions of the preceding section.

SECTION 61. If the board of assessors of any city or town neglect to comply with the provisions of any of the three preceding sections, each assessor so neglecting shall forfeit not more than two hundred dollars.

SECTION 62. The books provided by the tax commissioner for the use of the assessors shall contain a copy of this and of the seven preceding sections, and such certificates as are required by law to be signed by the assessors, with such explanatory notes as he considers necessary to secure uniformity of returns under the several headings. He shall annually compile and cause to be printed for the use of the general court the aggregate returns from the cities and towns arranged by counties, so as to exhibit the total valuation of the towns, cities, counties, and the commonwealth.

SECTION 94. If the assessors of a city or town ascertain that the aggregate valuation of such city or town has been diminished since the first day of April of the preceding year, they shall return with the table of aggregates, or with the books, which they are required by sections fifty-nine and sixty to deposit in the office of the tax commissioner, a statement in writing, under oath, of the causes which in their opinion have produced such diminution. If the assessors neglect to comply with the requirements of this section, each assessor so neglecting shall forfeit not more than two hundred dollars.

* This is affected by Chap. 129, G. A. 1918.
