William Cusse please to keep before your eyes and all ^{ways} remember that you have once to die and after death the judgement and be careful of your vainings and not forget your little family at home and take out little spirits for the less you make use of the better that it may be well with thee in a coming day - often breathing to the Lord for mercy and a thanking of the Lord for the favours which he hath favoured thee with the last thing in the evening and the first in the morning both watch and pray both day and night ~~and~~ and live on prayer as on food

Love mercy Deal justly and walk humbly God is Love and with out Love it is impossible to serve God and God is all mercy and he loves to see his creatures be merciful

What advantage is it to us J - C to read Good Books and the Best of Books and not to pay no ~~other~~ attention there to then Let us be wise in time and be wiser
