

Medal of Liberty Degrees of Kinship

In keeping with military protocol, the Massachusetts Military Division will present one (1) Medal of Liberty to qualifying families.

The order of precedence for the Medal of Liberty shall be:

1. Surviving spouse
2. Surviving children by seniority
3. Surviving parent(s)
4. Surviving siblings
5. Surviving nieces or nephews
6. Thereafter surviving kin in accordance with prevailing Massachusetts law.

Where two or more persons apply for the Medal of Liberty, the medal shall be presented to the person senior in the above order of precedence.

The Massachusetts Medal of Liberty Commission is a public body subject to the Massachusetts Open Meeting Law. Medal of Liberty Commission meetings are held three (3) times per year in February, June, and September. Notice of scheduled meetings of a Massachusetts Medal of Liberty commission can be found at <https://www.massnationalguard.org/announcements.html>.

How to Apply:

1. Complete part I and II of TAGMA Form 3367. Also enclose any documentation you feel will be helpful in the application process.

2. Mail to:

JFHQ-MA
Office of the Adjutant General
Attention: Medal of Liberty

Massachusetts MEDAL of LIBERTY

Criteria

In accordance with Massachusetts General Law Chapter 33 Section 67A, the Medal of Liberty is awarded to the next of kin of service men and women from the commonwealth killed in action or who died in service while in a designated combat area in the line of duty or who died as a result of wounds received in action. The Adjutant General and 2 field grade officers of the military forces of the commonwealth detailed by the commander-in-chief constitutes the commission to make recommendations to the commander-in-chief for the awarding of the Medal of Liberty.

The criteria for the Medal of Liberty are:

1. In any action against an enemy of the United States.
2. In any action with an opposing armed force of a foreign country in which the Armed Forces of the United States are or have been engaged.
3. While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force, in which the United States is not a belligerent party.
4. As a result of an action of any such enemy of opposing armed forces.
5. As the result of an act of any hostile force.
6. While in a designated combat area in the line of duty or who died as a result of wounds received in action.
7. After 28 March 1973, as a result of an international terrorist attack against the United States of a foreign nation friendly to the United States.
8. After 28 March 1973, as a result of military operations, while service outside the territory of the United States as part of a peace keeping or humanitarian force.
9. After 6 December 1941, by weapon fire while directly engaged in armed conflict, regardless of the weapon causing the wound.
10. While held as a prisoner of war or while being taken captive.

I am aware that the Massachusetts Medal of Liberty is awarded to the next of kin of service men and women from the commonwealth killed in action or who died in service while in a designated combat area in the line of duty or who died as a result of wounds received in action. The information I have provided is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I have read and understand the criteria and order of precedence for the next of kin described in this pamphlet. The Medal of Liberty commission reserves the right to redirect the award where the award has inadvertently been presented to a recipient who is of a lesser degree of kinship pursuant to the order of precedence for next of kin.
